

The Family Leadership Training Institute

Is there something you want to
CHANGE in YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD or SCHOOL?

BE A LEADER.

WHAT: The Family Leadership Training Institute (FLTI) is a leadership program for youth ages 11-17 offered by CSU Extension. FLTI includes: lots of great food and fun, public speaking, problem solving, civic skills, networking, media relations, meeting elected leaders, learning about government and public policy, and much more.

WHEN: FLTI runs for 20 weeks with classes one evening a week and a kick-off retreat.

WHY: To learn civic and leadership skills so you can become a leader and make a difference in your neighborhood, school, and community.

Apply to the FLTI Class of 2018 today!

We encourage applications from both youth and adults in partnership or as individuals. Apply for the Larimer County program at www.coloradofamilyleadership.com. An interview is required. Contact Sue Schneider, Interim Director, Larimer County Extension, at schneisd@co.larimer.co.us or 970-498-6014.
